1. In evidence of the reported intention of the Polish diplomatic mission in Buenos Aires to cultivate all Polish groups in Argentina in spite of former political alignments, the Polish Legation recently requested the editors of Union Eslava, official publication of the Slav Union of Argentina, to abandon plans for an attack on so-called fascist elements among recently arrived Polish immigrants. The proposed attack, which was halted by the Legation through the mediation of Dr. Stanislaus Breiter, had been motivated by the arrival in July aboard the Empire Spearhead of 548 Poles, some of whom may have been members of General Anders' (anti-Communist) army. At the time of the vessel's arrival, a group of Polish residents in Argentina had welcomed those aboard with a demonstration against the Soviets and in favor of General Anders.
 2. It has been reported by [REDACTED] that Dr. Breiter also prevented Union Eslava from making comments against the Polish anti-Soviet weekly, Nowy Kurier, edited and directed by Stanislaus Andres Smyczanski, who has been branded by pro-Communist Poles as a fascist.
